ABOUT COP15

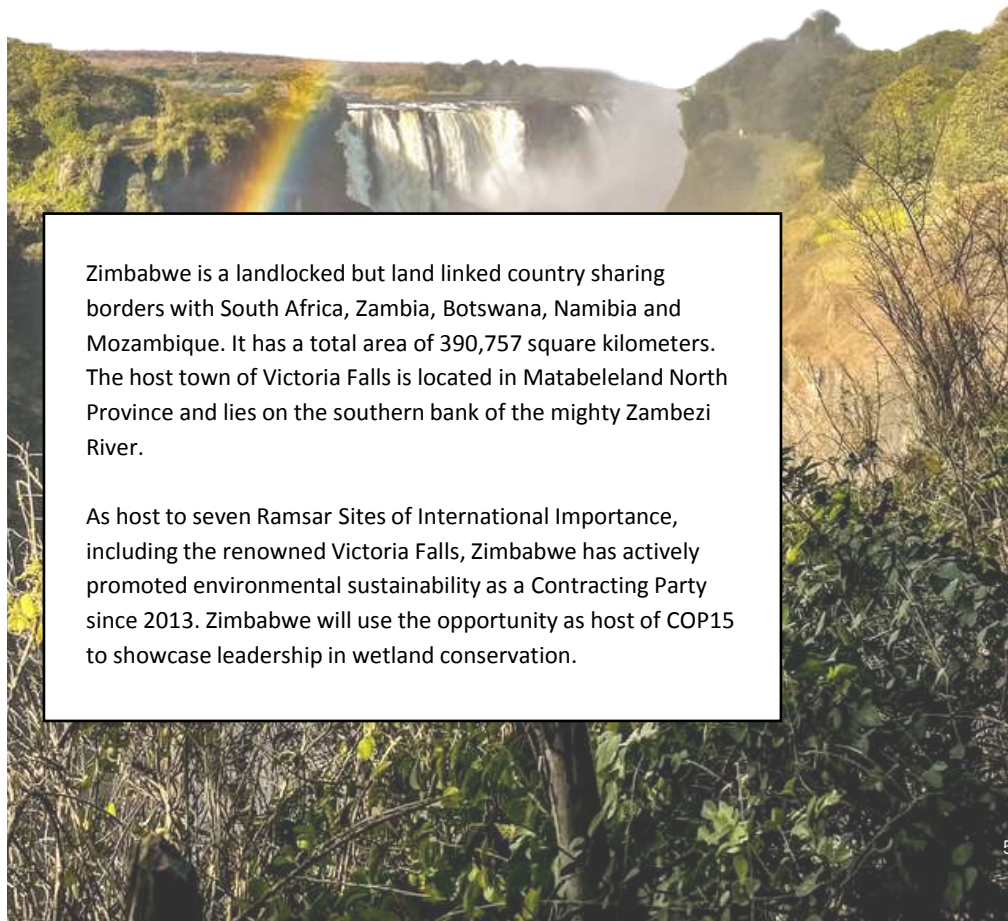

One hundred and seventy-two (172) Contracting Parties will convene at COP15 to strengthen international commitments for wetland conservation. COP15 will be held under the theme, “Protecting Wetlands for Our Common Future”, which emphasizes the important role wetlands play in sustaining ecological health, biodiversity, and climate resilience. Against the iconic backdrop of Victoria Falls, COP15 will spotlight the value of wetlands and create new avenues for collaborative conservation to protect and restore the wetland ecosystems.

COP15 will facilitate crucial discussions on the conservation and sustainable use of wetlands, serving as a global platform for advancing wetland conservation, fostering international collaboration, and promoting sustainable practices that protect these vital ecosystems and their benefits.

The theme, “Protecting Wetlands for Our Common Future”, resonates with global goals on biodiversity and climate, focusing on wetlands' role in fostering resilience towards the achievement of sustainable development. It emphasizes the critical role that wetlands play in ensuring ecological balance, supporting biodiversity, climate resilience and providing essential resources for human livelihood.

GENERAL INFORMATION ABOUT VICTORIA FALLS

Victoria Falls is a small town in the Province of Matabeleland North, in Zimbabwe. The town lies on the southern bank of the Zambezi River, at the western end of the famous waterfall bearing the same name. The town is connected by road and railway to Hwange (109 km away) and Bulawayo (440 km away), both to the south-east. According to the census carried out in 2022, Victoria Falls has a population of over 33,000. Victoria Falls Airport is located 18 km south of the town and has international services to numerous cities in Southern Africa.

The town is a short distance from Mosi-oa-Tunya (meaning “the smoke that thunders”), known worldwide as Victoria Falls, on the Zambezi River. Since the river forms the border between Zambia and Zimbabwe, the Falls are shared by the two countries.

CLIMATE

Zimbabwe has a tropical climate with many local variations. The southern parts of the country are known for their heat and aridity, while parts of the central plateau receive frost in winter. The Zambezi valley is also known for its extreme heat, whereas the eastern highlands have cool temperatures and the highest rainfall in the country. The rainy season generally runs from late October to March. In some areas of the country, the hot climate is moderated by high altitudes.

Zimbabwe experiences winter from May to August, with June and July marking the peak of the winter season. However, Zimbabwe does not experience snow during the winter period. The average temperature in Zimbabwe in the months of June/July ranges from 12–13° C (54–55° F) to 24° C (75° F)

TIME ZONE

Zimbabwe observes Central Africa Time (CAT) (UTC+2).

LANGUAGES

COP15 will be conducted in English, French and Spanish with simultaneous interpretation in the three languages.

Zimbabwe has 16 official languages. English is widely spoken, and Shona and Ndebele are the main Indigenous languages.

LOCAL CURRENCY/ FOREX

The local currency of Zimbabwe is ZiG$. However, the following currencies are accepted: United States Dollar, South African Rand, Euro and Botswana Pula are all accepted.

Please feel free to visit <https://www.rbz.co.zw/> for daily bank exchange rates.

Major credit cards, including American Express, Diners Club, Mastercard and Visa, are accepted in Zimbabwe.

For cash withdrawal ATMs are available at the airport, in town and also at the conference venue.

ELECTRICITY SUPPLY & VOLTAGE

The standard voltage in Zimbabwe is 220-240 volts and the standard frequency is 50 Hz. Power sockets are type G (the standard socket type used in the United Kingdom, which takes plugs with three square pins). An image of this socket type is shown below.

You are advised to bring a plug adaptor and a voltage converter (if warranted) to allow you to charge your devices.

Please note that adaptors will not be provided at the conference venue.

MOBILE NETWORK OPERATORS

To comply with national customs regulations, you should declare all laptops and conference equipment in your possession when you enter Zimbabwe.

TOURISM IN VICTORIA FALLS

Victoria Falls offers a wealth of tourism opportunities, making it the perfect destination to explore beyond the conference. Delegates are encouraged to take advantage of their time in the Tourism Capital and experience its breathtaking scenery, adventure activities, and rich culture.

A complimentary excursion day is scheduled for 29 July during COP15, providing delegates with the chance to discover the beauty and excitement of Victoria Falls.
