

World Wetland Day 2010

“Caring for wetlands: an answer to climate change”

The Zoology Department of Jinnah University for Women, Nazimabad celebrated the World Wetland Day 2010 on 23rd of February. A one-day seminar on Wetlands and Climate Change was organized. Wetland expert Ms. Rahat Najam (Core member of Pak-US Alumni Association Karachi Chapter–(PUAA)) invited as a guest speaker to talk on the subject. More than 100 female students of M.Sc, B.Sc and F.Sc from Zoology department have attended the seminar. All faculty members of the department was also attended the seminar.

Picture: Students of the Zoology Dept. with the guest speaker.

Ms. Rahat Najam has given a presentation on the WWD10 theme given by the Ramsar Convention. She highlighted the impact of Climate Change on this important ecosystem and how we can face this challenge to minimize the impact by adopting certain measures to overcome this threat. She has concluded her presentation with interactive question and answer session from the students.

Students realized that the knowledge they gained from the presentation about the topic is very useful for them. The chairperson of Zoology Dept. Dr. Neelofar has given the vote of thanks to the speaker and participants. She appreciated the enthusiasm of students and ensured that she will continue this kind of activity in future to enhance their knowledge.

*Contact for further information Rahat Najam-Wetland Expert (IVLP)
(Core member of Pak-US Alumni Association Karachi Chapter).*

Students at the Seminar

Faculty Members of Zoology Dept.