

World Wetlands Day 2012 celebration in Zamboanga City, Philippines held at the co-managed mangrove forest situated at the coastal zone traversing Mampang and Talon-Talon wetlands; reforest and maintained by the City Government of Zamboanga through the Office of the City Environment and Natural Resources (OCENR). On this day, a total of 1,500 mangrove propagules were planted in coordination with the local community.

