

Nyein Chan (SST), Co-founder, Myanmar Bird and Nature Society shared these photos of World Wetlands Day 2012. The event featured a speech by Daw Aung San Suu Kyi.

Save Our Wetlands
We must preserve the health and beauty of our environment that we may leave a valuable legacy for coming generations.
The time to start on this work is now, together with other peoples from all over the world, to ensure that our earth is a safe haven for our children and grandchildren.
